Beecher Road School Handbook 2014-2015:

We have read the BRS Handbook for the 2014-2015 school year. Our child has been made aware of rules and policies noted within the BRS Handbook or on the BRS website and will abide by these rules/policies. I realize that the Woodbridge Public School Policies are available for everyone to review on the BRS website (woodbridge.k12.ct.us). I also realize that I may examine the policies at BRS or at the Woodbridge Public Library.

Digital Publication of Student Pictures, Names, and Works

(From WBOE Policy 6141.322)

Student _____ Grade _____
(First, middle initial, last name. One form per child.)

In order to share the accomplishments, awards, and happenings in our district, pictures or first names of students can be published on a district site, but not both picture and first name together.

Student works that do not include personally identifiable information or material of a personal nature may be published on a district site using the student's first name only.

If a parent or guardian chooses to not have pictures, works and/or first names of their child appear on any district site, he or she should send a written request to the school principal.

If a teacher or the school believes that a student work including personally identifiable information or material of a personal nature should be published on a district site, the work may be published if a parent-signed release is obtained for the specific work.

No district employee may publish student pictures, names, or works on any non-district site without submitting to the principal explicit written permission from the child's parent.

Permission for Pre-K, Kindergarten, Grade 1, and Grade 2 Students

Pictures, works, and first names of students in grades Pre-K to Grade 2 shall not be published on publicly accessible publications except with permission from the parent. (Note: These works, pictures and first names may be published on District publications accessible only to students, school personnel, and parents using the guidelines stated above.)
